Fourth SpyCruise® to set sail in November

Top Intelligence Experts will Speak

Two recent former Directors of the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) will be among the exclusive speakers of the fourth SpyCruise® which will sail to the Caribbean November 13 to 20, 2010.

Porter Goss served as DCI followed by General Michael Hayden, who also served as the Director of the National Security Agency (NSA).

They will be joined by speakers Peter Brookes of the Heritage Foundation and former CIA officer; Major General Paul Valley, well-known commentator on national security issues; retired DEA Operations Chief Michael Braun; former chief spokesman of the CIA Bill Harlow; retired NBC national security correspondent Fred Francis; and Dr. Michael Corcoran, President of Henley-Putnam University.

Special guests on SpyCruise® include retired CIA operations officer and station chief Andre LeGallo; BBC journalist and author Tom Mangold; Academy-award winning producer Jerry Molen, and other authors and guests.

SpyCruise® will feature a special award ceremony honoring our fallen intelligence and military warriors and will donate funds to two foundations: The Scott Valley Soldiers' Memorial Fund and the CIA Officers' Memorial Foundation.

SpyCruise® is a private group aboard a cruise ship where members attend exclusive lectures and talks on espionage, spies, intelligence, counterterrorism and more.

Speakers are intelligence experts, leaders, officers, operatives, analysts, authors and historians, many of whom served in the US Intelligence Community.

Each cruise we choose a different ship, a different destination and a different agenda.

SpyCruise® is a unique opportunity for anyone interested in the topic of intelligence to meet and learn from real experts in the intelligence field as well as others who share the same interest in this topic and history, world affairs, intelligence, military, books, etc.

Lectures are normally once a day and the rest of the time is yours to enjoy the cruise ship and its excursions at different destinations. ♦
